

Curriculum Overview

KS1 (Y2) Spring 2023

Science

Living things

- life cycles
- food chains
- habitats and micro-habitats
- describe the basic needs of animals (for survival)

History and Geography

- History of chocolate
- Locating continents on a map.
- Locating the 5 major oceans on a map.
- Locating the equator on a globe and a map.
- Lewis Carroll

You can help your child by:

- Researching the history of chocolate.
- Look at a map and discuss the location of the equator, continents and oceans.

ICT

- Producing a group PPT about a chocolate bar

English

Writing

- Narrative writing based on Charlie and the Chocolate factory.
- Narrative writing based on Alice in Wonderland.
- Poetry
- Newspaper report
- Letter writing
- Persuasive writing
- Punctuation and Grammar - exclamation, command, question and statement sentences.
- Suffixes and suffix rules

Reading

- Anisha, Accidental Detective
- Poetry
- Non-fiction texts

You can help your child by:

- Discuss suffix rules and practise using suffixes in sentences.
- Generate sentences with persuasive openers.

Maths

- Multiplication
- Division
- Statistics – tally charts, pictograms and block graphs.
- Measuring lengths (mm/cm/m)
- 2D and 3D shapes (properties, lines of symmetry, sorting shapes using Carroll and Venn diagrams)
- Fractions (shapes and numbers)

Art and DT

Art

- Chocolate wrapper collage
- Salvador Dali

D.T.

- Designing and producing products

RE

Christianity

- Creation - What do Christians learn about God from the Creation story?
- Salvation - Easter Story

PE

Gymnastics and Dance

- Remember, repeat and link combinations of actions, body shapes and balances with control.
- Recognise and describe what their bodies feel like during different types of activity.

Music

- Creating jingles for a chocolate bar advert.
- Creating soundscapes using their knowledge of pitch, tempo and dynamics.

PSHE

- Relationships

Kindness

Honesty

Service

Forgiveness

Respect